Gold in Coal? As it turns out, YES.

I was surprised by this report from Russia that claims Russia now has a way to extract gold from burned coal. So I looked into this topic, and as it turns out, gold is often in coal deposits, evenly dispersed through it. If concentrations of an ounce per ton are common, that exceeds the concentrations that are often mined for in rock. So why would that be interesting?

It is interesting because according to the conventional model, coal is plant based, so there should not be any gold in it at all. I have always had my doubts that coal really is plant based, and instead thought it was just a carbon deposit. Carbon is a common element, so why not? Sure, you will find examples of plants that have been fossilized and reduced to carbon, but there should also be plenty of examples of carbon simply being a deposited element, and I think the Russians have proven that by finding gold evenly dispersed in it, which would be impossible if it really was 100 percent plant based in origin.

Podesta brothers near perfect match for police sketch of child snatchers

Police sketches are created with software that is fed descriptions from witnesses of what people looked like. This most certainly nails the Podesta brothers as child snatchers as accurately as could ever be done with a "no original photo" render of what people looked like.

Now that some new info is coming out, I am going to run with these photos, which I have had for a while.

Ok, so why would I post this? Because in a report farther down this page I discussed the death of Monica Petersen, who was investigating a child snatching ring being run under the cover of a fake gold mine in Haiti by Hillary Clinton's brothers, and Monica got arkancided last week. It is now fully confirmed that Monica was investigating Hillary's family in Haiti and was onto something, most likely linking to Comet Pizza, Hillary Clinton, the Podesta brothers, and DEFINITELY child smuggling conducted by Hillary's family all together in one neat little package, and then she died. She was in her 20's.

It is suspected that she tied it all together, but did not live to tell about it. The agency she worked for confirmed she operated under cover and had conducted a two year investigation, got onto something big, and died. They confirmed it during a memorial service during a live stream from Haiti on Friday.

I finally posted the Podesta brothers police sketch photo (I have had it for a while) because now it appears that the Podesta brothers were in Portugal the day a little girl named Madeline McCann went missing while on vacation from Britain in 2003, and were confirmed to have been within a mile of that disappearance which is to this day unsolved. With the Podesta E-mails being what triggered the entire pizza gate pedophile bust, Hillary's brothers running a child smuggling ring in Haiti with the subsequent death of the investigator that was onto it, the Podesta brothers obviously being featured in a police sketch of a child disappearance in Portugal on the day they were there, well, things are starting to unravel. Hillary herself said that "if Trump gets elected we're all going to jail," and it appears there might be significant substance to that statement.

I will get to more details tomorrow, I am still waiting for things to develop on this. I am being extremely cautious with this, because I know there are many people working overtime to feed disinfo into the alt media. However, what I have written so far is 100 percent confirmed and I held off until I hit "critical data mass" to call it real.

People are having a hard time believing that the entire DNC is a band of pedophiles (with plenty on the Republican side as well) so that is stifling the spread of relevant information. But to those who can't believe it, all I can say is if it is true of the upper leadership of Britain, and people in the French government have written books about it, well, why not in America also?

OBVIOUS: Google, Facebook, Twitter and others are cracking down on the Alt media now, calling it all "fake" because they are probably, when it all boils down, involved in scandals like this and they want those who would speak up smashed before hand now that there is a government in place that will likely do something about it. For what other reason could it possibly all be for? They are aiding and abetting known proven felons of the highest order by damning the alt media. QUESTION: WHY?

TOTALLY UNCONFIRMED RUMOR: "SOROS IS DEAD" UPDATED

UPDATE: There is something suspicious going on, and that is that all the "real" news sources that are saying Soros is alive and well are also saying Soros is not funding the riots, and that Soros does not have anything to do with America's voting machines. They are also saying Soros did not help Hillary and has never consulted with her, and that Soros does not own any foundations that do anything to mess with countries. After they make all of that good and clear, they are saying he's alive and well, and a really nice guy.

So we have full confirmation that the MSM is the fake media, whether or not Soros is alive or dead.

THE SAME PAPERS ARE ALSO SAYING ALONG WITH THEIR "SOROS IS ALIVE" REPORTS THAT SMARTMATIC OWNS NO TECHNOLOGY RELATED TO AMERICA'S ELECTION PROCESS, BUT

AS ANYONE WHO IS SAAVY KNOWS, THAT'S BULLSHIT:

How pathetic is the MSM when they spew crap like that when there is cold hard proof out there on sites like this? There is a reason why they are in the dirt now, and this capture proves it:

But Smartmatic pulled this page a month before the election, which means they don't have tech involved in the U.S. elections, just because average people can't find it on their web site anymore.

So the big question is then, is Soros dead? WHO KNOWS, but I do know one thing - the MSM is so unreliable in such easily proven ways that I won't even consider their take on this.

Yeah, THIS SITE IS "FAKE NEWS" BECAUSE I CAN PROVE SMARTMATIC AND SOROS WERE INVOLVED WITH AND PROBABLY RIGGED THE ELECTION. Do that and you are DOWN THE DRAIN even if Bev Harriss says it happened.

Take a look at this Inquisitr report that looks good on the surface, until you see the easily debunked Smartmatic B.S. that puts everything else they say in deep doubt. If I can prove so easily they are wrong about Soros and Smartmatic, how reliable are they with anything else? I'm not going to say Soros is dead, but I can certainly show how crappy they are about being "fake" and subsequently absolutely DESTROY Snopes, which is where they got this B.S. from.

BOTTOM LINE: I won't say George Soros is dead, but I can certainly prove beyond a doubt that the MSM is fake, and that they can't be trusted if they say he's not dead.

Snopes has been caught in so many confirmed lies we all know what their opinion is worth. Fulford was one of the latest to post on this, and he said an intelligence contact in the U.S. said it is real, and that it was an assassination. In my opinion, with topics like this, Fulford has a higher credibility than snopes.

Fulford does not like to be blatantly wrong on stuff like this, let's hope this has a thread of truth.

At any rate, people need to know about this rumor, and to be skeptical but hopeful.

On this topic, Mike Rivero at Whatreallyhappened has this to say (but he quoted the MSM link I destroyed the credibility of above.) Even still, this is good:

"Right now there is a war between the establishment Corporate Media and the new Independent Media. As a result, the internet is being flooded with a tsunami of hoax stories in an effort to trick the Independent Media into making a mistake that the Corporate Media can use to discredit us, or worse, sue us.

TO ALL MY FELLOW MEMBERS OF THE INDEPENDENT MEDIA! More than at any other time we must exercise extreme caution to verify all stories. Ignore rumors, innuendos, hunches, and flaky chains of supposition. Report on the facts, from sources on the record.

One such story that is being "pushed" very hard is this allegation of a Clinton-connected pedophile ring. I am being flooded with emails saying I "must" post this story, and that alone is grounds for suspicion! My instincts are telling me this is a setup, to open the door to defamation lawsuits against any Independent Media that accuses any individual of involvement.

I know the Corporate Media has been a vast wasteland of such rumors and malreporting (especially against Trump these last several months) but if the Independent Media is to survive and grow, we MUST exercise more journalistic professionalism than the Corporate Media has done.

This is a war, and the other side likes to play dirty. Keep that in mind when a really sensational tidbit gets sent to you!

My comment: I have no doubt whatsoever that a huge number of fake news sites have indeed been launched by the MSM for the sole purpose of discrediting alt media. I have kept an eye out for this, which is why a LOT of the "big stories" going around lately have not been posted here.

Nov 18 2016

EVERYONE SEND TRUMP A TWEET: "MITT ROMNEY IS THE SWAMP!"

DONALD TRUMP IS ACCEPTING VOTES FROM THE PUBLIC FOR CABINET POSITIONS

There are ten important positions he is letting the people decide. Including Secretary of State. I picked Ron Paul for that. There is probably a good position for David Duke also, but I did not think of that before I exited and you can't go back in, it remembers.

You do not need to fill in every position, just place a suggestion in one or more. IMPORTANT: A PAGE TO DONATE TO HIS CAMPAIGN COMES UP THAT IS AN ERROR AFTER YOU VOTE. Ignore that, it is obviously an error.

THE PAGE TO VOTE FOR WHO YOU WANT IN HIS CABINET IS HERE DO NOT MISS THIS CHANCE!

Wikileaks confirmed gone, I believe this is 100 percent real

Huge story on the web that might be true:

Monica Petersen, a woman who according to her friends who are searching for answers, was investigating the Clinton foundation for child trafficking and was found dead from "suicide" in Haiti

I thought it would be hoax news. On the surface, it does not look like it. Monica Petersen had a friend named Bella Robinson who has confirmed that Monica was investigating child trafficking under front cover of a "gold mine" in Haiti that was affiliated with Hillary's brother. Monica was a truther, who wrote this blog post. I have confirmed that Monica really did have at least loose ties to the Human Trafficking Center, which investigates child thefts and that the Clintons really were likely to have been running a child trafficking ring under the cover of a false front gold mine in Haiti. However, the Child Trafficking Center has yet to comment on this. Monica's family has not been able to get any details, but Bella claims to have information and is refusing to give the details on how Monica "committed suicide" saying instead that "it is inappropriate to post it" and to message her. So we have a key source of info who probably voted for Clinton that just can't get a grip on the fact that if this is real she had better blow it open now, or she's going to be dead too.

People are speculating that Monica was killed after Hillary lost because she was onto something and was going to land the Clintons in jail once they lost the protective cover under Trump. However, people also need to be cautious because the globalist Jewish community is seeding alt media with fake leads and stories for the sole purpose of creating a reason to smash alt media and call it fake news. Therefore, as real as this may look, people need to proceed with caution.

Hillary camp is issuing death threats to electoral college voters

This story is 100% confirmed.

"Vote for Hillary, or get a gun in your mouth."

The linked article is already captured and saved, this one is not going to get buried.

Not fake news. It is confirmed that Hillary's team is so desperate that they are telling electoral college voters to vote for Hillary or "get a gun in their mouths." It is not an isolated incident, team Hillary is sending out "dozens and dozens" of these threats that have been read, and hundreds more deleted because the deluge is so extreme.

So now we know what Hillary's support is really like. Politics via the gun. Not surprising, given past history and the Clinton body count. That is not the America I would want!

From the The Detroit News

Michael Banerian wants to show that young adults still have faith in the political system, but he said his selection as one of Michigan's 16 Electoral College voters has prompted emails urging him to vote for Democrat Hillary Clinton and even threatening death.

On Dec. 19, the 22-year-old Banerian is scheduled to join 15 other Michiganians to cast their electoral votes for Republican President-elect Donald Trump. But Trump's opponents have deluged Banerian and other GOP electors with pleas and nasty emails to reverse course and cast their ballots for Clinton, according to the Michigan Republican Party.

"You have people saying 'you're a hateful bigot, I hope you die,'" he said. 'I've had people talk about shoving a gun in my mouth and blowing my brains out. And I've received dozens and dozens of those emails. Even the non-threatening-my-life emails are very aggressive."

The Detroit News verified one message containing a death wish and another containing a death threat, in which the person told Banerian he would "put a bullet" in his mouth. Banerian said he deleted the rest of the emails and messages "because as you can imagine they're clogging up my email."

"Even if I could, I wouldn't be remotely interested in changing my vote," said Banerian, a political science senior at Oakland University and youth vice chair of the Michigan Republican Party. "The people of Michigan spoke, and it's our job to deliver that message."

Considerably more is here.

The above is not a fake news report. I thought it was so overboard it could not possibly be true, but have confirmed that the Detroit News is a legitimate web site that is associated with Gannet media and that yes, Hillary's camp really is making death threats.

According to this report they are not taking the threats seriously, but if you consider Hillary's history, I really think they should.

Trump DID call Ford

To clear the trolage: Trolls are claiming this did not happen, Mexican media said it did. Mexico trumps trolls:

Donald Trump did indeed persuade Ford to keep manufacturing in the U.S. that they were planning to move from Kentucky to Mexico. The moving of truck manufacture back to the U.S. was already underway before Trump however, because Ford was losing business because people did not want a Mexican built truck. That is the entire story in a short paragraph.

Regardless of what the U.S. MSM says to keep Trump's popularity down, the Mexican media reported that Trump really did stop Ford from moving car production to Mexico. Mexicans are PISSED.

Pravda: "The Trump Tsunami: Where we stand, and what is to come"

"The sheer arrogance of the western media was demonstrated the day after the election when on Wednesday November 9 it became clear that Donald Trump had won. The front pages of the press and the screens of the TV media were festooned with gloom and doom headlines such as "Oh no!" or "Oh my God!", more befitting a crowd of drunken morons at a soccer match. This was not the case in the Russian media." Read the whole thing.

IRNA (Iran) - "Trump's uneasy road to change Washington's hedgemonic approach"

"On the international hotspots like Syria, Trump's declared stance is in sharp contrast to the policies of his Democrat rival Hillary Clinton. While Clinton called for establishing a no-fly zone in Syria and for creating strong leverages against Russia, Trump acknowledged that US is no longer capable of toppling President Bashar Assad and should join hand with Russia and Iran in fighting the terrorist group of Daesh (ISIS).

Trump repeatedly lambasted Clinton for blindly approving war in Iraq and military operations in Libya, accusing her of having bad judgment.

From this angle, we may interpret the result of the US vote as a big No from American people to Washington's long-standing hegemonic and meddling policies in the world which have worsened living conditions in the US on the expense of American tax payers." Read the whole thing.

But following Trump's election as America's 45th president, Duterte appeared to have softened his stance against the US.

"To the president-elect of the US, Donald Trump, congratulations. It was a well-deserved victory and you are the chosen leader of the most powerful country on earth," Duterte told reporters late Tuesday."

Vile and Disgusting Media

Permalink

Jim Stone, Nov 17 2016

There is a program in Mexico that is produced by MTV called "Ridiculous". And the program is nothing but three idiots laughing at footage of people receiving what have to be life ending injuries. And I am strongly suspicious it has satanic roots. Figure this: For an example of what this program airs - there was one scene where someone driving a front end scoop loader had the scoop full of water and went to dump it on someone, but miscalculated and slammed the bulldozer scoop down on the guy's head and obviously broke his neck or back. We are supposed to laugh at that? Another scene showed a guy cutting a large tree, which fell wrong, hit him and sent him flying through the air from about 20 feet off the ground. Gee. Funny. Other scenes show people getting head injuries, or other serious injuries - where it is obvious they were hospitalized or dead. And we're supposed to laugh. I think I know what that type of programming actually is

Let's say a large number of the people we are supposed to laugh at really did get life destroying injuries or killed - and there are millions of people watching that are supposed to be laughing at that - it would equal a huge, evil, borderline demonic ceremony where suffering and disaster are laughed at and enjoyed for fun. It would strengthen evil in this world. And after seeing the advertisements for the latest episodes I started to think that really is what it could be.

GAY Ernie and Bert - the end of Sesame street

Another thing that really shows how disgusting the media has become is Ernie and Bert on Sesame street. They are a gay couple now. And every episode begins with Ernie's bed starting to dance, and then Bert jumps into bed with him. The bed then flies out the window, and they are flying through the sky, cuddling each other until the bed arrives at the fantasy destination where the adventure starts. It is always a different adventure. When the adventure is over, they fly back to the house in the bed. At least Bert gets out of the bed and goes to sleep in his own, but the picture says it all - it is still disgusting.

The totally hateful MSM

Another thing that really shows how disgusting the media has become is the hate fest spewed daily now, towards everyone who is conservative, (especially white America) on the network news after Trump managed to survive the election rigging. I am so angered by the MSM that even the small amount that gets through to the Mexican news channels is enough to make me want to puke. We're all supposed to be A-holes for wanting to keep America as America. We are all low lifes and scum bags. Gee, thanks. That has made the MSM so popular that Google and Facebook had to enhance that popularity by calling alt media fake, and scamming alt media out of an existence. That's a rant that can go on forever, BUT:

There is one thing that is spookier than anything about this: When they talk about the alt media, they never mention Natural News, Whatreallyhappened, this web site, or any of the others that are on the true cutting edge (many of which were never allowed Google ads at any point EVER,) - they will only mention Infowars, Brietbart and others that are occasionally compromised and controlled opposition that were, up until now, still allowed to have Google ads. It is not the size of the web sites that gets them ignored completely, it is what they cover that does, and the fact that Google and Facebook specifically called out Infowars and Brietbart means that even the controlled opposition has been targeted for destruction. They do not want ANY dissent AT ALL, not even the mushy stuff. And that's spooky.

We have been clearly shown what they intend for us to eat. They want us to laugh at disaster and misfortune. They want us flying through the sky on a gay bed ride. They want us eating line after line of bullshit, picked completely clean of anything that might give us a chance of finding the real truth. And if you are not on board, you are going to be de-funded, de-listed and marginalized. More than ever, that is OBVIOUS now. The question is: Can you at least get off Facebook and sideline Google? Or are you just going to help evil continue to progress by continuing to patronize those bastards?

NUKE IN WAITING:

The Congressional Review Act gives Trump the power to wipe out the last 6 months of Obama's presidency

A little known law called "The Congressional Review Act" which was passed by Newt Gingrich in 1996 to prevent outgoing presidents from trashing the nation upon exit will give Donald Trump - with the cooperation of Congress - the ability to nullify every law and agreement made by Obama in the last six months of his "presidency". Once nullified, the laws can never be proposed again. Obama is going wild writing everything under the sun right now to "wreck America" and create a mess before Trump gets in. And this law will make it possible for Trump to simply nullify everything Obama does between now and getting the boot from power.

If Obama gives all the illegals amnesty, Trump can void it.

The window of opportunity is six months. There is a very detailed report on this topic HERE. This is something everyone ought to know about.

The Jews, and ONLY the Jews are attempting to silence and purge alt media

FACT: The entire MSM, that lied its way all the way through the election is Jewish owned, with Jewish reporters, Jewish announcers, JEWISH EVERYTHING, and they served up a BIG FAT JEWISH LIE all the way through the entirety of the election process, starting 18 months ago. And the alt media kicked their butts with the truth. This cannot be denied right down to any specific point or detail. They scammed us and that is all there is to it.

So, to get even with the alt media shredding the Jewish lies, Twitter is purging the alt media and Google is pulling ads for most of the alt media, to try to make it go dark and starve it to death. Google is pulling adsense out under the excuse they are "shutting down fake news sites" but that is as fake and transparent as any other lie from the MSM. In conjunction with this, the MSM is once again lying and saying it is only "extremist white nationalists" that are getting purged by Twitter when in fact Twitter is purging absolutely anyone who is not popular enough to have it be noticed by more than 100,000 people, and says anything that goes against the "official" MSM lie.

So Drudge and Alex Jones will still be visible on Twitter, because Twitter can't get away with killing them off. But the massive groundswell that spoke so loudly against the status quo - a status quo which was planted and enforced by the Jewish elites, - is indeed in the process of being silenced. And twitter is not silencing truth media based on complaints, they are doing it based on keywords.

So there you have it, after losing an election to the truth, the Jews are pulling out all the stops to shut up the people and flush them into the dark, as they always do, as Bolshevik communist Russia set such a perfect example. That was ALL Jewish, no matter how they try to back paddle and deny it. And they wanted the same for America. They'd have gotten their wish with Hillary, the camps would have been opened, and they lost it all when, with all their tools, they just could not manage to steal it.

Now they are taking any stab they can at gaining dominance in the information sphere by using monopoly powers on the web through venues like Google, WHICH THEY OWN, and Twitter, WHICH THEY OWN, and Whatsapp, WHICH THEY OWN, Youtube WHICH THEY OWN, and Wordpress, WHICH THEY OWN, Gee, ever wonder how they managed to own all of these? The answer is simple, people found out about them through the MSM at first, EVERY SINGLE TIME, and they own the MSM. It is not because they are better than anything a non Jew dreamed up, it is because all these venues were spoken about widely in the Jewish owned MSM to give them an enormous kick start. There is not a chance in hell the MSM would ever mention a media or resource the Jews do not own, because knowing something exists is the main key to getting people to go to it.

So the big question is: Will shutting the truth out of Twitter and other venues, and attempting to kill the truth media off via starvation by refusing to serve the truth ads (as has always been the case with this web site) actually work to silence the truth? MY

ANSWER: Did all their efforts with all of their scam venues work to steal an election? *Four years is an awful long time to compensate for a loss of Twitter!

In case you missed it,

Russia hit ISIS in Syria as hard as they could yesterday morning (American time) and flew one bombing sortie every 21 seconds for several hours against "well vetted and confirmed" targets including weapons caches, manufacturing facilities, EVERYTHING ISIS related, and the American press did not say a peep. NOTHING. Not even on Drudge.

This has been confirmed 100 percent and the kicker is that before attacking ISIS so hard Putin chatted with Trump for the go ahead and totally ignored Obama. All of this is in yesterday's reports, if you missed this scroll down.

About the petition to get Hillary in -

It will fail. I'll go over the reasons. This is so ridiculous I ignored it, but it is a major topic of discussion so I'll throw in my two cents -

First of all, if any petition like this had a chance, they'd have to get more VERIFIED signatures than Trump's election win total. And it won't have a chance because they can't prove Hillary herself did not sign it 5,000 times or that a bot did not just fake it all.

Second of all, the election is over. Even with all the holes blown in this country by decades of liberal scams, you can't just flip an election afterward.

Third, American gun owners won't have it. And since many many people know it is the Jews doing it, you can rest assured that any GENUINE protests that no one paid a dime into won't be happening in the inner cities, they will happen in the suburbs, with a large number of them taking place in the vicinity of your friendly Kosher store. That will not go over well, you can bet on it. That alone would stop the steal dead in its tracks.

There are many other reasons why they won't have it. They are smaller reasons, like - I bet you did not know that Hillary is so hated that at least two electors Hillary won have already said they won't vote for her. There are Zero on Trump's side that have said that. And what about all the confirmed illegal votes for Hillary that can be dug up to wipe away this "popular vote" nonsense?

What we are seeing with this petition is a bunch of spoiled brats who have become accustomed to scamming everything refusing to give up on what they want even after the store has closed. They are going to have to give up, because the safety systems they planned on scamming to an election win in fact all snapped shut against them, and functioned exactly as they were supposed to. The electoral college worked. It does not matter how many scam votes they can pull out of California, or how high they push Hillary's popular vote, it is OVER, the safety system shut her out and NOT ONE elector I have read about has any intentions of doing anything other than let that system work as intended.

So let them cry and kick all they want. Don't ignore them entirely because they still could be dangerous. They could false flag something. They could try to dream up something new. But the petition itself won't cut it.

Avoid the Trump protests at all cost

I hesitate to post this because I know my readers know what the "protests" really are. Let me explain it in a few lines for those who might not know:

There is a trillionaire, undisputably the world's richest man, above the Rockefellers and Rothchilds. He's evil and he uses his money to fund movements to topple nations. In Mexico, the big Soros movement is the orange movement (Movimiento naranja) and he has bought and paid for "color" movements in nations world wide. He even had an "orange" movement in Ukraine. Soros is paying for the Trump protests, which were initially called "orange" but quickly got the color purple assigned to them, because so many Mexicans know about the orange movement going on in their own country and it was not working right for Soros in the U.S. due to familiarity.

ANYWAY The trump protests consist of almost entirely paid rioters that are being moved around the country on buses. The lowest pay is $180 a day, average pay is right around $400 and top pay is right around $1500. So the people doing the riots are paid a professional wage to do them. If you go into a protest zone, you will be going up against professionals and not legitimate dissent. And they can be NASTY, and it is totally pointless to try to discuss anything with them because they don't care about the cause, they just want to act and get paid.

So don't waste your time, having Trump supporters confronting the protesters is exactly what Soros wants, and hopefully Soros is going to face arrest for doing this to the country when the swamp gets drained. Obviously if they are coming to burn your house, you'd better take any action necessary to stop it.

AMERICA IS NOW AT DEFCON 5!

Defcon 5, as Russia blasts ISIS in Syria to smithereens! That's worth a laugh, and it was lowered to the safest level because Trump won the election, and NORAD knows we won't be going to war with Russia. When Hillary was still a prospect, we were at DEFOCON 3, and almost went to DEFCON 2, with DEFCON 1 being "launch". We were at that defense level because if Hillary managed to steal it there definitely would have been war with Russia.

Instead, Putin talked to Trump a few hours before launching 1 sortie every 22 seconds (an unbelievable number) against

"well vetted and confirmed ISIS targets in Syria". That ought to finish quickly, when I did the report farther down this page, Russia had already launched 400+ sorties in the prior two and a half hours.

The details on this are farther down this page.

And THANK YOU TRUMP for making it possible for America to be at rest while Russia cleans up the mess Hillary and Obama made.

Google's move to ban ads on "fake news sites" is nothing but an attempt to kill alt media

Google can't handle a Trump presidential win, so Google is going to wipe out the financial base for practically everyone who busted the MSM and made a Trump win possible by calling them "fake news sites" and using that as an excuse to deny them Google ads.

Google banning ads to this web site (as they always have) will not hurt this web site any more than it has already been hurt. However, it will destroy much of the alt media. All Google has to do is make an arbitrary decision about who is posting "fake news" and POOF, they are gone. Cute excuse to de-fund the entire truth movement that pushed Trump to victory.

Clearly, we still need to fight a war even with a Trump win. Failure to do so will see the end of the alt media, which made a last shot at freedom possible. You can bet that Google is not going to pull ads after the New York times published fake news, even after New York Times admitted publicly to producing fake news all through the election, and apologized profusely for it. Nope. That's not the kind of "fake news" Google is talking about. Google is worried about "fake news" that might make a difference in America's political future. You know - the kind of fake news that discusses America supplying ISIS, Newsweek reports about a Clinton victory days before the election (no Trump version out yet) vote rigging, you know, THE ACTUAL TRUTH.

You know, the kind of news that is REAL. The kind of news the Jews HATE. Google is going to let everyone who reports the "truth" flourish, while it makes every last effort it can to starve anyone who reports the TRUTH to death. The TRUTH is "disinfo" don't you know, because it is the WRONG INFO.

And so this web site will continue to live without ads, as always because I don't give in and actually try to nail the truth every time. I just hope the rest of the alt media finds a way to survive now.

RUSSIA GOING NUTS IN SYRIA, WITH 300 AIRSTRIKES IN 2 HOURS

Russia was no doubt emboldened by Trump as POTUS and has launched massive carrier based airstrikes with heavy bombers, cruise missiles, artillery, and infantry in Syria to wipe out ISIS. This story just broke.

Now let's see what Obama's responses are, with U.S. warships within eyeshot of the Russian warships (the Mediterranean is not big enough for both navies).

OK, Here it is on RT

CONFIRMED: BEFORE LAUNCHING MASSIVE STRIKES ON ISIS IN SYRIA, PUTIN FIRST CALLED TRUMP AND DISCUSSED IT, AND HE TOTALLY IGNORED OBAMA! HA HA HA HA HA and a half page full of laughs!

TRUMP WILL END THE WAR ON TERROR. All it will take is a little cleanup and a cutoff of American funding for the terrorists.

UPDATE: THIS IS HUGE, RUSSIA IS CONSISTENTLY LAUNCHING ONE SORTIE EVERY 21 SECONDS. THEY ARE RUNNING THIS AS HARD AND FAST AS RUSSIA IS CAPABLE OF WITH THE FORCES PRESENT THERE. AND IT IS OFFICIAL: THIS IS A TRUMP APPROVED ACTION AND YOU KNOW * WELL PUTIN PULLED NO PUNCHES AND TOLD HIM ABOUT OBAMA, HILLARY, AND ISIS.

And now we witness the end of the Obama-Clinton legacy, before he's even out of office!

Packetsled CEO "resigned"

A couple days ago I reported on the CEO of Packet Sled, who made a credible threat to kill Donald Trump. Packet Sled, which is a cyber security firm that is used by American intelligence agencies was none too thrilled, and with timing that ended up being as fast as possible (report to work, pack your stuff, leave) they got rid of him. So Trump already created 1 new CEO job before he even took over the white house.

The main report on this is down the page a ways.

ISIS at Thanksgiving day parade?

Prepare for another ISIS<sub>(tm)</sub> false flag attack where a truck mows down people! And you can prepare for that, rather than prevent it, because the New York Post once again failed in it's journalistic duty even while licking it's wounds after the "Trump disaster." How did they fail? By not telling us ANYTHING about ISIS, and who ISIS really represents.

It is not going to do any good for restoring credibility if they fail to tell you that ISIS is a home grown Hillary launched enterprise that America bought and paid for by funds issued straight from your tax dollars by the U.S. secretary of state herself - Hillary Clinton. I doubt my regular readers are unaware of this, but let me humor the casual passer by with a bunch of mundane stuff.

There are lots of different theories on this, so let me just hit the main one that never varies: To create a terror front that would give America a reason to be in the middle east, Hillary and Obama created ISIS, quite literally out of thin air. They have tried to back track and avoid accountability for doing so, but the fact that ISIS is an American operation is proven by the fact that America constantly resupplies ISIS with much needed weapons via air drops in addition to providing support to ISIS with HUGE convoys of trucks being escorted by American helicopters (to make sure they get to where they are going safely) AND HERE'S THE KICKER - When Russia and Syria are getting the upper hand against ISIS anywhere, the U.S. relentlessly bombs them into oblivion.

So when the New York Post mentions that ISIS is going to attack a parade, and they fail to mention Hillary, it is a monumental journalistic failure that proves that even now, they won't tell the whole truth even with a gun to their head.

Earlier today I issued a warning about Trump possibly getting drugged

It is definitely a threat that should be considered, he needs to watch out. HOWEVER,

He chose Steve Bannon from Brietbart for his white house advisor. That was a good choice. Now he needs to make Ron Paul his Secretary of State, which he has not picked yet. If he does that, there is not much that could go wrong. I was seriously miffed when he said the Obamas and Clintons were "good people". And that made me think he might have already been drugged. However, with his choice of white house advisor, he's not going to get kicked straight to the gutter even if things like that do go wrong.

I GOT BANNED ON A POPULAR FORUM FOR POSTING THIS:

I had not posted anything to that forum for months prior, this really is what the ban was for:

In a thread that was discussing how expensive American medical is, and discussing health care abroad, I posted the following after a troll bashed Mexican health care as "third world" and "third rate".

"Mexican health care is excellent. The hospitals are clean and luxurious. If you are a business executive, your hospital room will have a conference room attached to it so you can have business meetings without leaving the hospital and that type of room is still cheaper than any American hospital room, even if it is a shared room in America.

Trolls want to bash the Mexican medical system, and call it third rate to keep Americans stuck in the illusion that America is better. But I have been to plenty of hospitals in America, and plenty of hospitals in Mexico, and Mexican hospitals beat American hospitals in cleanliness, appearance, luxury and price with ease. And the care is EXCELLENT.

My father in law went into a Mexican hospital totally disabled from a brain injury, had brain surgery, and came out PERFECT. Obviously the troll that is bashing Mexican medical has been assigned to keep Americans trapped in the illusion that everything American is better. But I can solidly state that is not the case, which explains why so many Americans have discovered that it is often better to get medical care in Mexico.

I hit submit and it did not post, a ban screen came up instantly. Gee. I wonder why.

There is a cash cow to protect, and it is the scam of Obamacare, and hideously over priced and under delivered American medical.

I CAN PROVE MEXICAN MEDICAL IS SUPERIOR TO AMERICAN MEDICAL FOR THE SAME PRICE.

There is a hospital five miles from here that uses the same model of MRI in this picture (to the left here) and it only costs $150 USD for a comprehensive scan, post analysis by an expert included. It is the exact same 3.0 tesla short bore G.E. 3.0 tesla MRI that the Advanced MRI center in Cambridge Massachusetts uses, but in Massachusetts you can bank on spending 15 times as much to get anywhere near it. I have seen the machine myself at this hospital nearby, because I still want to at some point in the future do brain scans of people who have taken antidepressants and wanted to locate an MRI that could get an accurate enough picture. A small Mexican hospital had it, and it is just a small, cheap hospital with 10 rooms. Very nice rooms, very nice hospital, but it is not huge and not expensive and not a main attraction AND IT HAD THAT EXACT MACHINE.

Other hospitals have the SAME EXACT MACHINE or something else similar (most have a machine similar to this one plus an open bed MRI) but they ask $250 for a scan. I know this for certain because I went to the hospitals to discover what they had, so I could finish the antidepressant report. There are 4 different hospitals within 8 miles that I know of that have that or similar, but they cost more (about $250.) FOLKS, MEDICAL IN MEXICO IS SO GREAT THAT EVEN THE SMALL HOSPITALS HAVE STUFF LIKE THIS, AND IT IS A BRAGGING POINT FOR AN ULTIMATE HIGH CLASS HOSPITAL IN AMERICA. I found that equivalent machine in Cambridge online by typing into Google what it is after getting the details from that little hospital, and it showed up in this picture in the U.S., at an advanced "research" medical center in the U.S. that is affiliated with Harvard University. So trolls can tell me all they want about how much Mexican medical sucks, and all I will do is shake my head, the lies are so damn obvious. Small Mexican hospitals might have the main attraction from a high class hospital in the U.S.!

This is not an error. I was very specific with that hospital. I knew that was a good MRI machine and hunted it down specifically. This happened 8 months ago. That hospital had it advertised. They opened the door to the room it was in, and THERE IT WAS. I confirmed that it was the 3.0 tesla model. I told them I might eventually return with people who had taken antidepressants for brain scans and they said it could handle it. The price translated to $150 USD per person. Americans really need to come to grips with what a ripoff the medical system is, it is SUCH a ripoff it can only be an act of war. You could go into this Mexican hospital and get 4 MRI's for a typical single payer SINGLE MONTH payment for health insurance in America now. I can't even begin to describe the ripoff Americans are forced into with the medical there.

TRUMP AND MELANIA ARE ANTI VAXXERS. GOOD NEWS.

On that note, I am going to re-post this:

Vaccine damaged babies noticed in Mennonite communities

"They begin walking, then they get the shots and stop walking. It takes them two or three months to walk again, and when they do, their personality is different"

During the election cycle, (which kept me from posting about this because it was off topic) I spoke to a Mennonite man named Keene who was selling Mennonite cookies on a street corner in Mexico. I was surprised he spoke English and asked him why there were so many Mennonites in Mexico. He said that the Canadian government had become so hostile to Mennonites that they have been moving to Mexico in large numbers. I asked him if the same thing was happening in the U.S. and he said yes - the Canadian mennonites fly right over the U.S. and go straight to Mexico, where there is much more freedom than either the U.S. or Canada. He said the American Mennonites are going to Mexico the same way.

He said they are setting up large colonies in Mexico because the Mexican government leaves them alone, and that the Canadian and American governments are becoming very invasive, to the point of destroying them.

I then shifted the conversation to vaccines and asked if the Mennonites accepted vaccines. He said they sometimes did, but that it was becoming less common because the vaccines obviously damage the babies. He said that when a baby that has started walking gets vaccinated, it gets very sick, stops walking for at least two months and when it is able to walk again it is not as smart and the personality has changed.

The Mennonites are, more so than an average American family, more likely to know what their baby was like and are a lot less likely to take crap from a doctor saying the vaccines did not do it. THE MENNONITES KNOW.

OH, AND MENNONITES ARE WEB SURFING "CONSPIRACY THEORISTS!" NOT! Keene was very surprised to meet someone who was not Mennonite who would even ask the question about vaccines destroying babies, it has been HELL for them, THEY ALL KNOW IT, AND MENNONITES DO NOT EVEN GET ON THE INTERNET TO READ ABOUT IT. It is not an "internet conspiracy theory" for them, they have seen it first hand. All they ever get is the same sh*t from doctors, telling them that if they think the vaccines hurt their babies, they are nuts!

REPEAT FROM YESTERDAY: I strongly suspect Trump is being drugged.

Trump's recent behavior makes me think he got hit by an exotic mind control drug that only the intelligence agencies of the top states have. On these drugs, you will not appear to be drugged. You won't get high, you will not exhibit any physical symptoms AT ALL, NOTHING, NO OUTWARD SIGNS AT ALL, but you will be very open to manipulation and spilling your greatest secrets. I suspect he got nailed either when he visited Obama at the white house or by the secret service.

Folks, they can't get away with poisoning or killing Trump now. The only thing they can do is drug him with something the public does not generally know about, and you can bet they will try.

Trump should definitely NOT TRUST ANY JEWS. He should not trust the secret service. He should not trust any government food source. Trump should have his own completely isolated food supply that he himself ensures is safe by having it sourced and prepared exactly the same way it was prepared before he was elected president, by the EXACT SAME PEOPLE he had doing it before, in a completely new secured kitchen. He should not eat out anywhere. I do not think Trump realizes exactly how deep the snake pit he just walked into is.

If he is drugged, it will take approximately two months for it to wear off, provided they don't keep nailing him. The only changes will be that he will be easily manipulated and not be able to keep secrets. This is not a guess, I have an intelligence background and know this is pristine info.

The people who will notice he got nailed will be his family. They will notice that he just suddenly started talking about things he would not talk about before, with people he would have never said such things to before. They will notice he is a LOT more easy going and relaxed, and will do whatever anyone suggests. And those will be the only symptoms.

NEW ZEALAND QUAKE MAN MADE

FACT: Natural earthquakes do not make the sky light up like day. If natural earthquakes made the sky light up the way this picture to the left here is showing, the ancient books including the bible would be full of reports about earthquakes turning the night into day, and there are no references to this. There should be numerous reports of this in American history, Greek, Roman, and European history also, and there are NONE. Forget the trolls saying this has been reality for thousands of years, this is something new. I'd have also heard about it in school, and known this as a kid science buff. Earthquakes have NEVER been known to cause scenes like this picture prior to recent times, WHICH (reportedly) SHOWS THE SKY LIGHTING

UP OVER THE OCEAN WHERE THERE ARE NO POWER LINES SHORTING OUT TO CAUSE THIS.

If this is not caused by ground based electrical failures, history proves we have got to be looking at sky flashes from an energy transfer from either a space based, or a ground based weapon system. This is confirmed to not just be transformers and power lines shorting out (which is what I would have said it was, if I was not told otherwise). The official story with these flashes is that it is piezoelectric activity in the earth's crust doing it. That might be possible on land, and close to the ground. But that is an absolute impossibility if these lights appeared above the ocean, which would short it all out and I would never believe any event of this type would be so bright from natural causes, you can clearly see it is brighter over a large portion of the sky than the nearby lights on the houses, which also prove the power did not fail from a massive electrical explosion somewhere and more importantly, that it is not just a long exposure camera trick. Any piezoelectric activity would not have been that bright, and if this did happen over the ocean as reported, if it came from the ground it would have terminated in the ocean. Where are the electric fish kills that earthquakes have caused throughout history if they make so much electricity the water could not short it out and the sky lights up above the ocean?

Welcome to the new world, where mega powers manipulate the weather and the planet itself. And it is all impossible, RIGHT? Impossible for a head buried snowflake to believe because his IPAD says it is not so, and gives a smart sounding reason that is an obvious lie? Yeah, we are so high tech that everything is different now, even the world is doing all kinds of new and unique stuff BECAUSE "I HAVE AN IPAD." And the sky lit up like this because "the moon caused the earthquake."

The moon does trigger earthquakes. That is a fact. But what about this electrical phenomenon? My final answer: The earthquake machine is a reality. The sky has probably lit up like this before from it but no one noticed because it has always been used during the day. Even America's own secretary of defense has stated the systems exist that can do this, all the way back in 1997. The energy has got to get into the ground to cause it if it is an earthquake weapon doing it, and we have the first great picture of this energy transfer happening at night.

ELECTION CONFIRMED RIGGED?

I ignored this claim yesterday until Drudge posted it today because it is impossible to sort fact from fiction half the time. As it turns out, a bare minimum of 3 million illegals voted for Hillary. I have figured out the potential fallout from this, and am going to decline to comment.

I WILL SAY THIS: Do not discuss the topic. Discussing it could backfire badly. Trump is TOTALLY IN. The topic of a rigged election should be dropped now or the unseen results could end up being very bad.

We got Trump. What more do we need? We don't need to prove anything now, the best thing to do is SHUT UP.

We can petition for election reform after Trump is able to do something about how it is all obviously rigged.

TRUMP NEEDS TO WATCH OUT FOR BEING DRUGGED

His recent appearance on 60 minutes has convinced me someone nailed him with a mind control drug he is completely unaware of.

There are specialized drugs that do not make you high, that do not change your moods, but they make you extremely susceptible to manipulation, and can also cause you to talk about your greatest secrets openly. I am almost certain Trump has been nailed by this type of drug already. These types of drugs are put in food and will be completely unnoticed. They would be delivered by people who have earned your trust that should not have your trust, such as, in Trump's case, the secret service.

Melania and Trump's kids would notice a change that Trump himself would not notice. They would notice the change even if they were also drugged. Everyone who is legitimate who is surrounding Trump will need to keep a close eye on him for behavior changes. These changes would be, as I have said - openness to external manipulation and an inability to retain personal secrets. These drugs are only owned by intelligence agencies of the top states. Trump had better watch out, I think he might have already been nailed. They take about two months to wear off, it won't wear off in a day.

If anyone can get this warning through, it really needs to be sent through - Trump should not accept any food or drink from anyone. Recently he visited the white house, there is a good chance he got nailed during that visit.

This is something I know of only because I have an intelligence background - this is not something Trump would automatically know about. These drugs cause ABSOLUTELY NO physical side effects, no high feeling, no sleepiness, NOTHING OTHER than making people open to suggestion and unable to retain secrets. It will be practically impossible for someone who has been nailed by them to know it, unless someone told them their behavior changed.

I could not sleep until I posted this, I believe it is of the utmost importance.

Credible assassination threat made against Trump

Matt Harrigan, CIA CONNECTED CEO of Cyber security firm Packetsled has made a credible threat to assassinate Donald Trump with a sniper rifle.

In now deleted tweets he said the following: "I am going to get a sniper rifle and kill the President elect. I am getting a sniper rifle and perching myself where it counts. Find a bedroom in the White House that suits you motherfucker, I'll find you. Bring it on secret service! In no uncertain terms FUCK YOU AMERICA. Seriously. FUCK OFF.

He is now apologizing profusely on Twitter.

A troll who is calling himself "President Shirley" is doing all he can to keep Twitter under control by saying that what Matt Harrigan said is not illegal and protected by free speech! I don't think so! You can't threaten the President like that. It is just one snowflake keeping it cool for another!

Matt was the CEO of a significant company. IF ANYONE IS USING PACKETSLED FOR SECURITY, IT IS NOW CERTAIN THEY ARE THE ENEMY, DITCH THEM. @WilliamShatner Sorry Bill, our nation is in crisis and your contribution to society has dwindled to nostalgia. Pls enjoy your end quietly.

"You poor precious snowflake; you didn't get your way so everyone needs to run around like chicken little?"

HA HA HA HA HA HA HA, gotta laugh. Good for now and later. Twitter either wiped this out or is blocking it. So Twitter just could not handle it.

This brings to mind the New York times. Are you going to forgive them, as they asked you to, and actually believe they are going to be honest now? The NYT admitted they lied all through the campaign, apologized, and is now begging for forgiveness. SO ARE YOU GOING TO GO BACK TO THE HAS BEEN "NOSTALGIA" NEW YORK TIMES, OR GET ON BOARD WITH THE CAPTAIN?

George Soros has been sued for the protests

The father of a slain Dallas police officer is suing Soros and Black Lives Matter for $550 million dollars.

The father of the Dallas police officer who was killed by a lone gunman during a Black Lives Matter protest is suing the organization's activists and George Soros for $550 million. In a separate suit a Baton Rouge police officer is similarly suing for injuries sustained during a BLM protest.

Soros deserved it. I suggest anyone who gets damaged by the current protests do the same thing. Obviously you won't get this story from the MSM, you will have to read RT for this kind of news.

You now have to officially register to use the internet in China

There were rules on the books earlier, but it is now official - if you are going to use the internet in China, you now have to be 100 percent accountable to the government. And it is against the law to suggest a system other than the socialist system China now has.

China has officially labeled Tor and VPN options as "terrorist software". Soros ought to be thrilled with this, NO DOUBT a Hillary presidency would have meant the same in the U.S. and there is a solid reason behind why some in the U.S. media are calling for an assassination of Donald, and solid reason behind why Soros is paying for the protests. They wanted their commie China in America, and damn near cheated their way into it.

Soros paid opposition,

A heads up: Last night there really was a Craigslist ad (if you heard rumors about this) asking for protesters to fake being Trump supporters by wearing read, and "acting against the protesters". But this is already busted because the Craigslist ad got caught. The best thing to do with the protests is to stay home or drive around them. Soros is not going to have people he paid for do a lot of property damage because everyone knows it is him, and he is responsible for anything that happens if he pays for it.

Anyway, the Craigslist ad was offering protesters $35 an hour, paid at the end of the day. I SUGGEST HAVING UNEMPLOYED TRUMP SUPPORTERS, GO TO ANY PLACE ANYTHING LIKE THIS IS PAYING PEOPLE TO PROTEST, SIGN ON, BE A "DO NOTHING WORKER" and cash in. Just take his freaking money. Be all mellow and stuff. Knock the legs out of his protests by being part of them and doing a lousy job, all the while you tell everyone else to "not get violent" and get paid real well in the process. That would squelch the fire real good. And DO NOT WEAR RED.

The Electoral College cannot be stolen now

Arizona and Michigan were suspicious, because they took so long to report. However, now that they have and they went to Trump, you can forget about anyone rigging the electoral college to go against Trump, it won't happen.

First of all, in 29 states electors are bound by the law under threat of punishment to vote the way the people voted. In the rest of the states, they won't be punished but will be replaced with someone who will vote the way the people wanted. Add to this the fact that there are a large number to influence now, and it is an impossibility that it would go any other way than Trump.

The Soros crowd is making false claims that the electoral college was put into place to prevent someone like Trump from getting in. This is a lie. The electoral college was in fact put into place to limit the power of the large states, so they could not walk on the small states. The electoral college is to provide an averaging of power, and give small states a larger voice than they would have with a straight popular vote.

Obviously the Soros crowd would love people to believe their lies, and that electors could vote any way they want, but they cannot, the election is set in stone. Their only hope was to fool people into thinking the electoral college could change things, (with a tiny lead from Trump) and then sway only a few electors in a few places to flip it to Hillary, while issuing massive payouts to prevent anyone from enforcing the law and depending on public ignorance to take care of the rest. However, With so many electors in so many states now solidly in Trump's pocket, that's not going to happen. In fact, if an elector decides to switch sides and go with the majority (which won't change outcomes anyway) they can flip their vote to TRUMP and not be punished, because it will not change the election results anyway. There is a much bigger chance of this happening than anything else.

Vaccine damaged babies noticed in Mennonite communities

"They begin walking, then they get the shots and stop walking. It takes them two or three months to walk again, and when they do, their personality is different"

During the election cycle, (which kept me from posting about this because it was off topic) I spoke to a Mennonite man named Keene who was selling Mennonite cookies on a street corner in Mexico. I was surprised he spoke English asked him why there were so many Mennonites in Mexico. He said that the Canadian government had become so hostile to Mennonites that they have been moving to Mexico in large numbers. I asked him if the same thing was happening in the U.S. and he said yes - the Canadian mennonites fly right over the U.S. and go straight to Mexico, where there is much more freedom than either the U.S. or Canada. He said the American Mennonites are going to Mexico the same way.

He said they are setting up large colonies in Mexico because the Mexican government leaves them alone, and that the Canadian and American governments are becoming very invasive, to the point of destroying them.

I then shifted the conversation to vaccines and asked if the Mennonites accepted vaccines. He said they sometimes did, but that it was becoming less common because the vaccines obviously damage the babies. He said that when a baby that has started walking gets vaccinated, it gets very sick, stops walking for at least two months and when it is able to walk again it is not as smart and the personality has changed.

The Mennonites are, more so than an average American family, more likely to know what their baby was like and are a lot less likely to take crap from a doctor saying the vaccines did not do it. THE MENNONITES KNOW.

OH, AND MENNONITES ARE WEB SURFING "CONSPIRACY THEORISTS!" NOT! Keene was very surprised to meet someone who was not Mennonite who would even ask the question about vaccines destroying babies, it has been HELL for them, THEY ALL KNOW IT, AND MENNONITES DO NOT EVEN GET ON THE INTERNET TO READ ABOUT IT. It is not an "internet conspiracy theory" for them, they have seen it first hand. All they ever get is the same sh*t from doctors, telling them that if they think the vaccines hurt their babies, they are nuts!
